

Provide a numbers of how much times it has been rented out for each film titles under each film category.

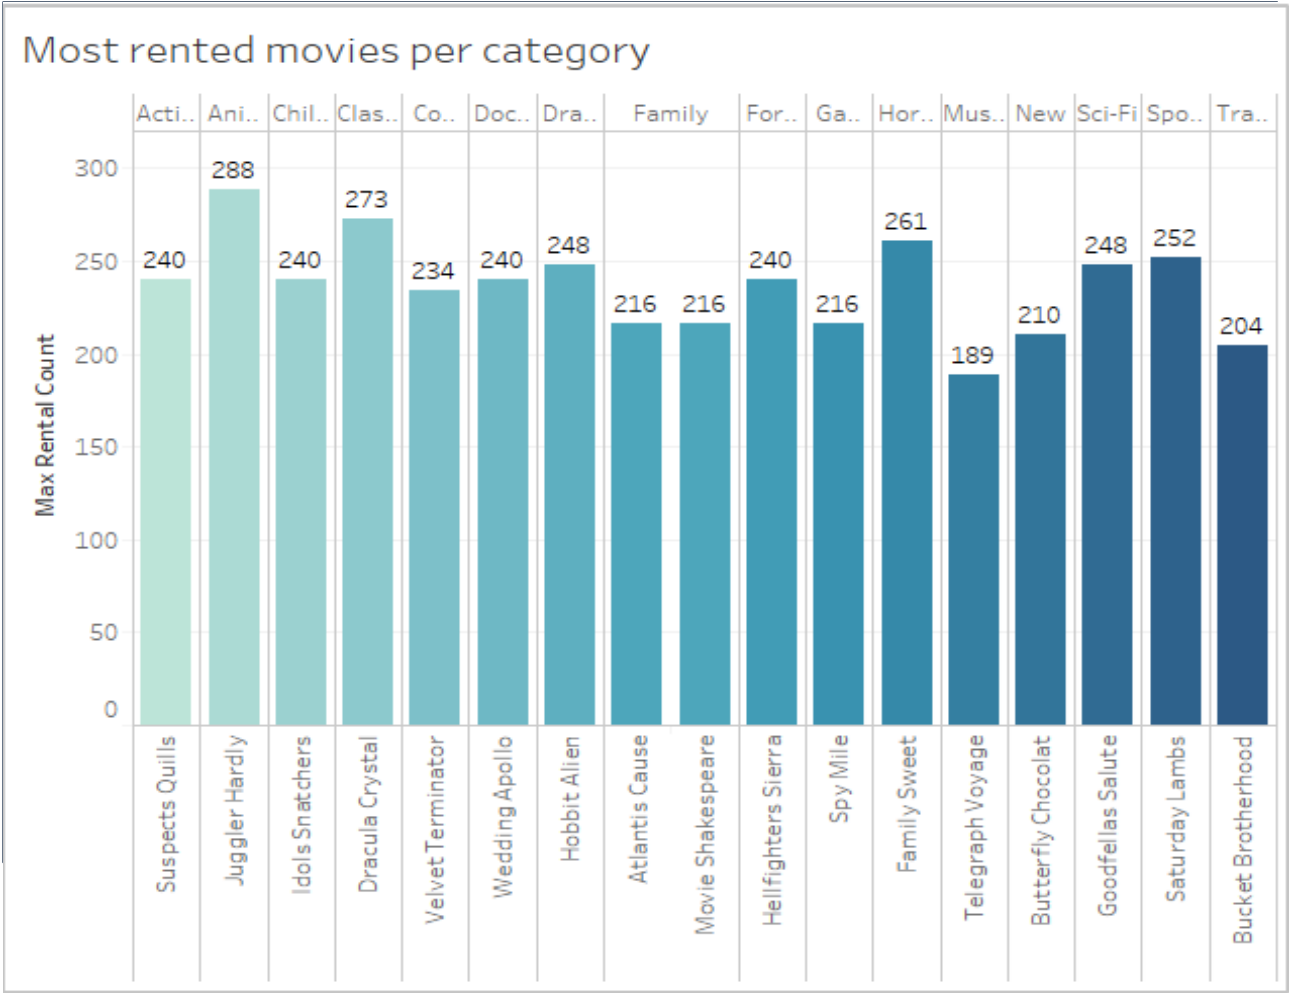

Family on the top of the chart and it's followed by Animation as most rented out Film Categories watched by families. While Music is the least rented out film category.

Top 10 paying customers has the highest monthly payment difference in 2007?

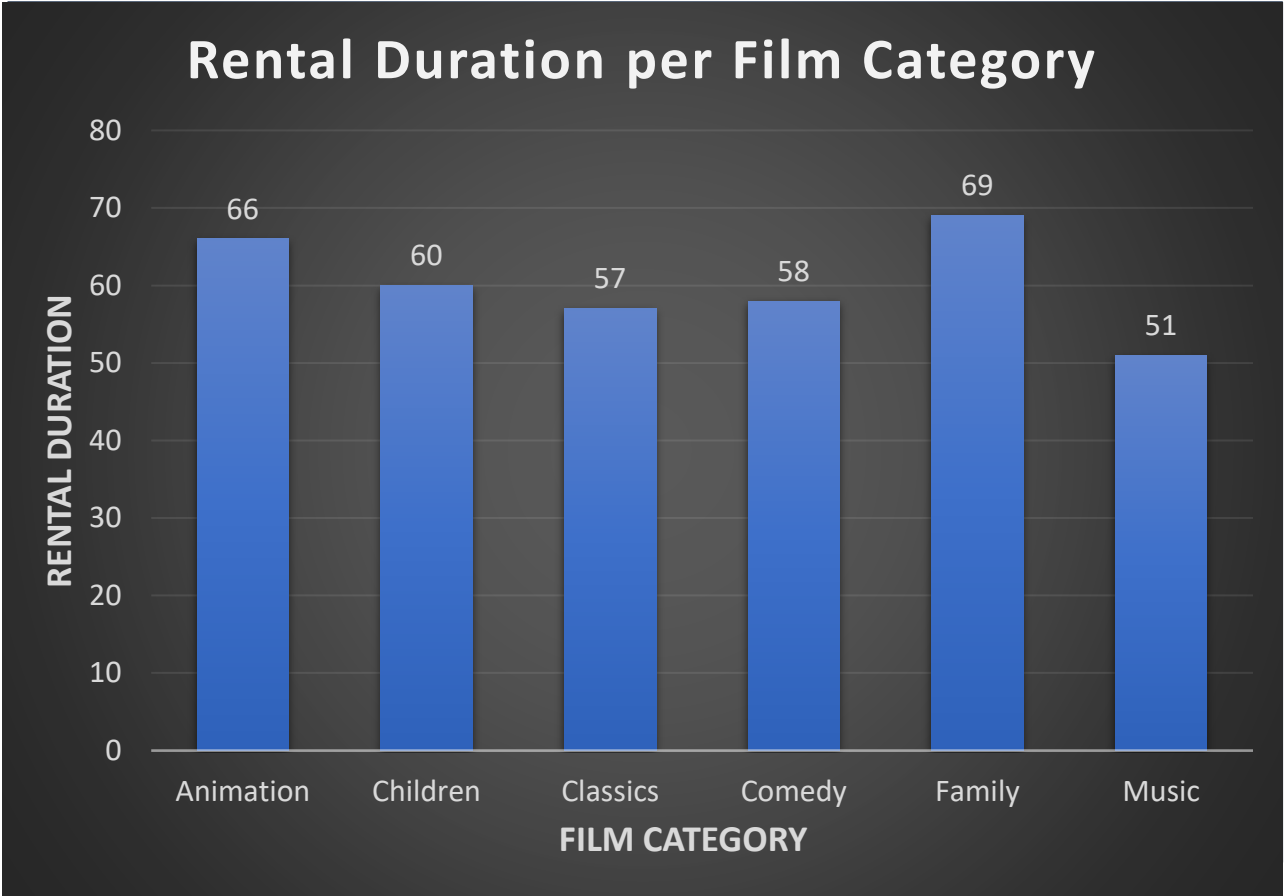

Eleanor Hunt paid the maximum difference of $64.87 in 2007.

Most rented movies for each category.

Juggler Hardly of the animation category was the highest rented film.

In the family-friendly film category, provide count of movies within each combination of film category for each rental duration category.

Rental duration for Family as a film category is the maximum and Animation is the second one.

While Music has the with least rental duration as a film category.